

Standards Board Approved Audit question and expectation for tracking spills:

Does the company record and measure performance statistics including number and volume of spills to water? (RCP II-A-7f)

The company must have one or more written procedures, which address recording and measuring the number and volume of spills to water, and the procedures must satisfy the RCP definition for a written procedure. The company should be able to provide evidence to document compliance with the company's performance measurement procedures.