Transportation Worker Identification Credential | Exemption Notice

TSA issued a notice, Exemption to Extend the Expiration Date of Certain Transportation Worker Identification Credentials, on April 10, 2020. With this notice, TSA is granting a temporary exemption from requirements in 49 CFR part 1572 regarding the expiration of certain Transportation Worker Identification Credentials (TWIC[®]s). For TWICs expiring between March 1, 2020, and July 31, 2020, the exemption extends the validity of a TWIC for 180 days for an individual whose TWIC would otherwise expire during the effective period of the exemption, which remains in effect through July 31, 2020. TSA may extend this exemption at a future date depending on the status of the Corona Virus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) National Emergency.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Why is TSA granting this exemption?

A: TSA determined that it is in the public interest to grant an exemption from the current expiration standard in 49 CFR part 1572, which is five years from the date of issuance, given the need for transportation workers to continue to work without interruption during the current National Emergency created by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Q: Has the U.S. Coast Guard (USCG) provided guidance on the use of TWIC?

A: Yes. USCG published Marine Safety Information Bulletin 13-20. Updated information on USCG operations and procedures, may be found under “Featured Content” on the USCG Deputy Commandant for Operations website and by monitoring Coast Guard Maritime Commons.

Q: Do TWIC holders need to take any action(s) to extend their Security Threat Assessment?

A: No. This exemption applies to TWICs that expire on or after March 1, 2020, through July 31, 2020. For those TWICs, TSA will extend the security threat assessment expiration date for an eligible TWIC to 180 days after the current expiration date that appears on the face of the credential. If the 180 day period extends past July 31, 2020, the TWIC will be valid for the remainder of the extended 180-day period based on the expiration date of the TWIC. In accordance with USCG requirements, facility or vessel owners and operators may accept TWIC cards that show an expired date for unescorted access to secure areas. (Note: For new TWIC enrollments, TSA is planning to keep enrollment centers open. Please visit <https://universalenroll.dhs.gov> to verify enrollment center operations.)

Q: Does this exemption compromise national or transportation security?

A: The risk to transportation security associated with this exemption is low. TSA maintains the ability to recurrently vet TWIC holders and take action to cancel or revoke a TWIC if derogatory information becomes available, regardless of the expiration date.

Q: Where can I find more information on TSA’s temporary exemption?

A: The exemption notice is appended to this fact sheet and published to the Federal Register. For additional information, please contact the TSA TWIC program at: TWIC.Issue@tsa.dhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the SARS-CoV-2 virus (Novel Coronavirus) and Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) to be a global pandemic. On March 13, 2020, the President declared a National Emergency.¹ The President then issued Executive Order 13909, Prioritizing and Allocating Health and Medical Resources to Respond to the Spread of Covid-19 (March 18, 2020), which declared: "... it is critical that all health and medical resources needed to respond to the spread of COVID-19 are properly distributed to the Nation's healthcare system and others that need them most at this time."

In response to these actions, a majority of states have imposed significant restrictions on commercial activities and individual movement, except when performing essential functions. Moreover, health experts and the government have strongly recommended that individuals practice social distancing when engaging with others, to minimize the spread of COVID-19. During this time, it is vital to move cargo expeditiously through the supply chain, and to ensure that medical supplies and home goods reach healthcare centers and consumers. Maritime facilities and vessels are an integral part of the supply chain and must continue to operate at full capacity.

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS), through TSA and the U.S. Coast Guard (Coast Guard), published a final rule on January 25, 2007 that establishes requirements for merchant mariners and workers who need unescorted access to secure areas of maritime facilities and vessels.² These individuals must successfully complete a security threat assessment (STA) conducted by TSA and hold a TWIC[®] in order to enter secure areas without escort.

¹ See Proclamation 9994, Declaring a National Emergency Concerning the Novel Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) Outbreak (March 13, 2020). Published at 85 FR 15337 (March 18, 2020).

² The final rule implements requirements in the Maritime Transportation Security Act (MTSA), Pub. L. 107-295, 116 Stat. 2064 (November 25, 2002), and the Security and Accountability for Every Port Act of 2006 (SAFE Port Act), Pub. L. 109-347 (October 13, 2006).

TSA and the Coast Guard administer the TWIC[®] program. Persons who are required to hold a TWIC[®] (defined as a mariner credentialed under 46 CFR part 10 or 12, and anyone needing unescorted access to a secure area of a vessel or facility regulated under 33 CFR parts 104, 105, or 106) are required to enroll and provide proof of identity and fingerprints at approved enrollment sites, designated and operated by a TSA trusted agent.³ TSA's regulations require individuals who seek unescorted access to secured areas of maritime facilities and vessels to undergo an STA in order to receive a TWIC[®]. A TWIC[®] expires five years from the date of issuance⁴ and individuals must go to a TSA enrollment center to initiate a new STA to receive a new credential.

There are 2,294,797 active TWIC[®]s in circulation today, and TSA records indicate that 234,536, or approximately 10% of them, will expire in the next six months. Social distancing practices in response to the COVID-19 crisis make gathering at enrollment centers unwise or prohibited. Approximately one-third of TSA's TWIC[®] enrollment centers have been forced to close because they are collocated with commercial or government offices that are closed as a result of COVID-19. For those that are operating, the process of collecting fingerprints, which is required for TWIC[®], and completing the enrollment process may introduce risk to enrollment center staff or TWIC[®] applicants.

Authority and Determination

TSA may grant an exemption from a regulation if TSA determines that the exemption is in the public interest.⁵ TSA has determined that it is in the public interest to ³ See 49 CFR § 1572.17.

⁴ See 49 CFR § 1572.23(a).

⁵ See 49 U.S.C. § 114(q). The Administrator may grant an exemption from a regulation prescribed in carrying out this section if the Administrator determines that the exemption is in the public interest. The grant an exemption from the current expiration standard in 49 CFR part 1572, which is five years from the date of issuance, given the need for transportation workers to continue to work without interruption during the current the COVID-19 crisis. This exemption will allow TWIC[®] holders to continue to provide vital services during the COVID-19 crisis, while TSA ensures effective transportation security vetting.

TSA has determined that there is little to no risk to transportation security associated with this exemption for the following reasons:

1. The extension of expiration dates applies only to individuals who have already successfully completed a comprehensive STA;
2. The extension of expiration dates is applicable to a relatively small percentage of TWIC[®] holders and is for a set, limited duration subject to possible modification by TSA before the end of the effective period to ensure consistency with the duration and scope of the COVID-19 crisis;⁶
3. TSA will continue to recurrently vet these TWIC[®] holders against Federal terrorism and national security-related watch lists, and the DHS Office of Biometric Identity Management (OBIM) IDENT system (a DHS-wide system for storage and processing of biometric and biographic information for national security) for security threat, criminal history, and immigration status checks during the extension period; and
4. TSA retains its full authority to suspend or immediately revoke an Administrator of TSA delegated this authority to the Executive Assistant Administrator for Operations Security, effective March 26, 2020, during the period of the COVID-19 National Emergency.

individual's TWIC[®] if the agency determines the holder is no longer eligible, in accordance with 49 CFR § 1572.5(b) and 1572.19(c).

Exemption

1. Eligibility. This exemption applies to TWIC[®]s that expire on or after March 1, 2020.

2. New Expiration Dates for Eligible TWIC[®]s. For the duration of this exemption, the expiration date for an eligible TWIC[®] is 180 days after the expiration date that appears on the face of the credential. TSA deems these eligible TWIC[®]s to be valid for the purpose of unescorted access to secured areas of maritime facilities and vessels. If the 180-day period extends beyond the duration of this temporary exemption, the TWIC[®] will be valid for the remainder of the extended 180-day period based on the expiration date of the TWIC[®].

3. Continuation of Vetting. For the duration of the exemption, TSA will continue to recurrently vet the holders of the eligible TWIC[®]s against governmental watch lists for security threat, criminal history, and immigration status. TSA retains its full authority to suspend or immediately revoke an individual's TWIC[®] if the agency determines the holder is no longer eligible, in accordance with 49 CFR § 1572.5(b) and 1572.19(c).
